IT'S HOPPIN' GOOD FUN FOR KIDS AT SPRING EVENTS

Fun activities for little ones and big kids, too at Mundelein Park District

Mundelein, Illinois—Spring into the season with hoppin' fun at egg-citing events for both little and big kids at Mundelein Park & Recreation District (www.mundeleinparks.org).

FOR THE BIG KIDS:

“Scramble” to perform physical tasks/skills and follow clues on an egg-streme adventure at the GREAT EGG QUEST (ages 7 to 11 with parent). Skill challenges, decision making and determination are needed to earn eggs and special prizes. The Great Egg Quest will be held on Tuesday, April 11, at 6:30 pm, at Community Park (1401 N. Midlothian Rd.). Cost is $14 ($16 non-resident). Pre-registration and adult supervision are required. Register at <http://bit.do/EggQuest>, or come in to the Community Center and register for Program #6494. Activities may include both indoor and outdoor challenges, so please dress for the weather and bring a container to hold your treasures. Event will be held rain or shine.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES:

Children ages 1 to 6, hop on over to Mundelein Park District for the FREE Egg Hunt Egg-Stravaganza on Friday, April 14. Dozens of colorful plastic eggs, some containing special prizes, blanket the ground. Kids collect the eggs in different age groups beginning at 10 am sharp at Community Park (1401 N. Midlothian Road). Ronald McDonald (courtesy of Mundelein McDonald's) and the Spring Bunny will be attending providing plenty of opportunities for great photos. With Presenting Partner NorthShore University HealthSystem, Mundelein Park & Recreation District continues to host this spring tradition at no cost to the public! Bring along a basket or bag to hold eggs and don't forget your camera. Adult supervision is required and no registration needed. Rain date: Saturday, April 15.
