LOCAL BUSINESS HELPS WITH PARK CLEAN UP

Service project benefits Mundelein's Hanrahan Park

Mundelein, Illinois— Fourteen volunteers from Mundelein's Target Store rolled up their sleeves and volunteered their time beautifying Hanrahan and Noll Parks in Mundelein last week as part of their "Week of Service" initiative. The group worked with Mundelein Park District's Grounds Supervisor on the project that involved picking up trash throughout the parks.

"I was thrilled when the good folks at Mundelein's Target contacted me looking for a way that they could help out the community," said Anthony Nitti, the District's Human Resource Manager.

"Keeping our parks beautiful is a wonderful way to make a difference."

Hanrahan Park, (sometimes referred to as Dinosaur Park due to the dinosaur-themed play equipment), boasts a fitness trail, tennis courts, basketball court, playground and picnic area. It is located on East Noel Drive.

Noll Park, on Hampton Drive includes ball fields, playground, picnic area, fishing, walking/jogging path, tennis courts and a recently resurfaced basketball court.
