STAND-UP TASK FORCE RECOGNIZES MUNDELEIN PARK DISTRICT

Mundelein, Illinois— Mundelein Park & Recreation District was recognized by the STAND-UP Task Force of Mundelein (<http://mundeleinstandup.org/>) for participating in the organization's annual "Parents Who Host Lose the Most" Campaign. The campaign's goal is to prevent underage drinking during prom and graduation season.

Matt LaPorte, Mundelein Park District's Superintendent of Recreation, serves on the STAND-UP Board and accepted a certificate at the June meeting on the Park District's behalf. "The Task Force serves an important role in keeping our teens safe from the negative consequences of alcohol and other drug use," said LaPorte. "Partnering the Park District with other organizations in the community is an excellent way for the coalition to reach as many parents and teens as possible with this very important message."

STAND-UP Task Force is comprised of community leaders, organizations, schools,
